- Making it possible for you to e-mail, print out, or share a webpage through social networks like Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn;

We do not collect or use information for any other purposes than the purposes mentioned above, unless we have attained your permission prior, or unless we can do so based on regulations.

Storage period

Silent Disco Box does not store your personal information longer than strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which your personal information is collected. Your personal information will not be stored longer than one year.

Transfer of information to third-parties

We do not transfer your information to third-parties without your prior permission, unless this is necessary in the context of performing the agreement, or unless we are obligated by regulations to do so.

Cookies

We collect information for research, in order to attain a better insight in our clients, so that we can tune our services to them. The website uses "cookies" (text files that are stored on your computer) to help the website analyse how users use the site.

Our website uses cookies or similar technologies where information is stored on and/or read from the device (for ease of reference all such techniques will be called 'cookies' in the rest of this text) in order to:

- Enable functionalities of the website and to protect the website (technical or functional cookies);
- Analyse the usage of the website and improve the website based on this (analytics cookies);

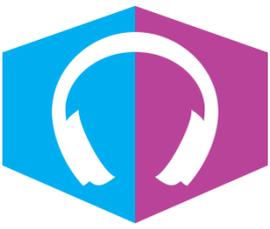

Technical or functional cookies

Some cookies ensure that certain parts of the website perform up to standard, and that your user preferences are known. For example, cookies can be used to render fonts correctly, remember your user session on the webserver so you can view the website, or to remember a search term which was used for searching within the website or a chosen search filter. The technical and functional cookies we use store the user information and concealment of information after the first visit to the website.

Analytical cookies

Furthermore, we use cookies from Google Analytics, so Google can give us insight about how our website is being used, give us reports about the website to us, and give us information of the effectiveness of our campaigns. The information that we attain in this process, will be transferred to Google and stored by Google on servers in the United States, including your IP-address.

We have a data processing agreement with Google, wherein agreements are outlined about the handling of the collected data. We have not granted Google the permission to use the acquired data for other Google services. Google can however transfer information to third-parties if Google is obligated to do so by law, or in the case that third-parties process information in the name of Google. We do not have any influence on this. More information about the processing of information by Google Analytics can be found in the Privacy Policy of Google and in the Privacy Policy of Google Analytics.

You can turn off Google Analytics cookies collectively by using this link: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

Deactivate Google Adwords

We also use Google Analytics to analyse information from AdWords for statistical purposes. If you do not agree with this, you can deactivate this function through the Privacy Policy of Google Analytics.

Enable/Disable cookies

You can set your browser that storage of cookies is only allowed when you accept it. Please note: many websites do not work optimally when cookies are disabled.

Cookies deletion

Many cookies have an expiration date. If there is an expiration date for the cookie, the cookie will be automatically removed as soon as this expiration date passes. You can also opt to manually delete cookies before the expiration date passes. Please refer to the manual of your browser for more information on this.

Third-party websites

This privacy- and cookie-statement does not apply to third-party websites that are connected to our website through links. We cannot guarantee that third-parties will handle your personal information in a trustworthy or secure manner. We advise you to read the privacy statements of these websites before using the websites.
